CHAPTER: Victims, Aren't We All?

On Devil's Night in Detroit, police Sergeant Albrecht surveys a crime-scene. A young woman named Shelly Webster has been raped and gravely wounded. Her fiancé, rock musician Eric Draven, was killed in the attack, having been shot and thrown from the window of their loft apartment. As he leaves for the hospital with Shelly, Albrecht meets a young girl, Sarah, who Shelly and Eric looked

The crow helps Eric locate Tin Tin, who Eric stabs to death.

Eric next travels to the pawn shop where Tin Tin had pawned Shelly's engagement ring, forcing the owner, Gideon, to return it. He blows up the shop, but spares Gideon so that he can warn the others.

Eric tracks Tin Tin who is one of the murderer of Shelly's death
and Eric Draven
having a fight for a revenge

People once believed that when someone dies... a crow carries their soul to the land of the dead.
but sometimes, something so bad happens...

that a terrible sadness is carried with and the soul can't rest.
then sometimes, just sometimes... the crow can bring that soul back to put the wrong things right.
